Mr. J. H. Smith, Secretary of the Alberta Provincial Sheep Breeders' Association, states that a large number of new members have joined the association this year, and that they will be at least 100,000 pounds of wool graded and sold through the association last year. This is due to the fact that those who sold through the association during the past four years have realized the highest prices—much more than any who are members but who sold direct to the buyers realize that they get a much better price than they would have received had there been no association to take care of the wool of their sheep. They recognize that in supporting the association they are not only getting the highest price for their wool for this year, but they are strengthening the association itself, and guaranteeing a market for the future as well. It is considered that an effort to bring order to the market for the future as well as to weaken the association by deserting the farmers a good price to sell their wool direct, but the farmers have that no operating sign and that it is best to support their own organization. The Alberta Provincial Sheep Breeders' Association will advance 10% of the market value of the wool which returned to those who desire this advance.

Rain

As rain as gentle shower has been celebrated many times in all literatures. Its practical value is proven more happily proven than by the poet's eloquent description. It is exactly what the country needs and through this district, though some harm may have resulted in places from the dry weather, can be said to have come in time to prevent any disastrous failure of crops.

Almost in some places business men and farmers have been contemplating a hard fall and winter. This rain will relieve their anticipation of that ugly-look aspect, and will lighten up business conditions appreciably.

We are fortunate in receiving this boon before it is too late.

Labor's Short Cuts

A speech of J. S. Woodworth in Moose Jaw the other day drew the idea of cutting the progress in the most possible way. The speaker suggested that labor should in some way gain control of the industry and of the courts.

Mr. Woodworth is a man of ideas in the attainment of a graduate of a Canadian University who took post-graduate work at an English University. While in England the condition of the "unmanned loom" of London attracted his sympathy and interest. Ever since then his sympathies have been with that part of the community which particularly in Europe have stood in need of help.

In making himself a spokesman for Canadian labor however he forgot the efforts by which British labor during the last thirty years has accomplished its purpose. He says Canadian labor is where British labor was thirty years ago. The reason British labor occupies the independent and respected position it does today is simply because it has steadfastly refused to take the short cut to power which Canadian labor leaders have been agitating for recently. Control of the courts and of the militia will get the Labor people nowhere without also control over Legislation. What is the sense of advancing control of the military and of the courts unless these powers have the correct law to enforce?

A study of the history of British labor in the last thirty years shows that their leaders have patiently and not without a struggle risen to commanding positions in the British House of Parliament. They have been enabled to get the laws they wanted. Of course the legislation they obtained was enforced by all the powers at the disposal of the state, the courts and the military if necessary.

Labor leaders in Canada at present are attempting shortcuts which will only prejudice their cause. If labor wants legislation it will have to influence legislators and elect them to office. As soon as leaders of Labor realize this, they will be turning for parliament instead of directing their people towards revolution.

By the Way

Congratulations to W. J. Williamson on his success with his herd of Jerseys at the Edmonton Exhibition. The head of his herd won the grand championship, and other prizes came to various members of the herd.

The Picnic on the 29th can't be a failure in any event. If the day is fine everyone will be there and will have a fine time. If it rains the people will be happy for they cannot get too much rain—in fact it is badly needed right now in places.

Saturday July 16th is the day set apart throughout the Empire for the celebration of Peace. The day has been proclaimed a public holiday.

It looks as though again this year Northern Alberta-ports it is at any rate—will be called upon to give assistance to the stock-men of Southern Alberta. But as the drought has become in certain sections of the North, it is not nearly as severe as the south has been called upon to get. The government has always been called upon to get cheaper freight rates, and to put stockmen of Southern Alberta in touch with districts where they can procure feed so that their herds may not be sacrificed.

Trading In Titles
In Charge Made

London.—The tender spot in British political life today is the disunion of titles. There are award ed, of course, by the King, but on the recommendation of the House of Lords. The new national party, which has a few members in the House of Commons, has taken up the question. The chairman, Gen. Fane Croft, has written:

The House of Lords has a peculiar interest in this matter, because the House of Commons is not allowed having their name lowered by the addition to the purely rich and purely aristocratic ranks of the House of Lords.

The question was threatened not only by the fact that there was a general consensus of opinion that the House of Commons were unwelcome the reason being that they were not sufficiently rich. This has been done in force, but, it differed, not in substance, but in form, and the House of Commons as the left list were described as the "poor" and the "poor" which mean almost anything.

There is a great deal of evidence to prove that the House of Commons are not as rich as they are supposed to be. The House of Commons are not as rich as they are supposed to be. The House of Commons are not as rich as they are supposed to be. The House of Commons are not as rich as they are supposed to be.

Quality of French Beer

A soldier was telling his friends of his experiences in France, and among other things they discussed was the difference between the beers of the respective countries.

"Well," said the soldier at last, "my idea is that drinking one of these French beers is about as like having your sister."

There is no telling what a day may bring forth. A man may be happy today and married tomorrow.

The Convention at Ottawa

Whether Liberal, Conservative or Farmer, the eyes of every voter for the present week are focused upon the Liberal convention at Ottawa. Possibly all of the voters of the west the farmer is least inclined to admit his interest in the proceedings there, for he has not cut loose from Party affiliations and tyrannies and started out upon his own.

However that may be, and the farmer by the constitution of his political organization has made it the organization of a class, the political party of a minority—there is no doubt that the actions of the present convention at Ottawa will determine the political future of Canada for years to come just as did the Liberal Convention of 1893 if the Liberals are not able to unite first of all upon a leader who is in a sense above party and then upon a platform which has for its object the improvement of living conditions for the average citizen of the Dominion who have to look elsewhere for leadership and a way to change through which to give expression to their desires.

There is a widespread feeling that the Liberal party could free the people from onerous burdens they bear through our present system of taxation. That to a greater extent by means of direct taxation the people best able could make to bear a greater proportion of the burden of taxes. That to it to incomes should be more largely taxed than at present and duties should be levied either as far as possible reduced. That our Canadian Manufacturers are the greatest benefactors of our nation and that both the public treasury and the public suffer, but our system of raising such a large portion of our public revenue by indirect means.

A convention which not only prepares a platform, but shows the people wherein they can be relieved by carrying out and putting into effect the terms of that platform; a convention which can choose a leader who is not merely a party man but who has the welfare of the people at heart will certainly be the one to win the support of the masses.

In any event the people in the long run will get what they want whether it be the hand of Liberal, Unionist or Farmer party.

By the Way

The Fort Fair is now less than a month away. Do not forget the dates September 2 and 3. Remember also that it depends upon the co-operation of all for its success.

In America they are experiencing the same beneficial effects from Prohibition which the Province of Alberta has. A substantial reduction in crime, 15% in the first month, has been one of these.

Shoe manufacturers say that the price of shoes which is going down late in 1920, none while they keep going up. However life will be no better but a vale of tears were there nothing to look forward to.

The attitude of W. F. Nickle, M. P. for Kingston, is quite the logical one. He went to Parliament as a Unionist. He was and is a Liberal, but considers that the way being over the only course for him is to resign. The principle might well be extended to the whole government.

With shortening days and the tang of fall already in the air, we are reminded of the approach of winter. This year preparation of winter should in some respects be made well before-hand. Late seasons have limited the output of coal mines. Action cannot be taken too soon to ensure sufficient heat for winter by laying in a supply of fuel.

The Farmer's Party has interesting possibilities. Although the people who have framed its constitution are farmers and have confined the interests of the party to farmers, it is quite within the realm of possibility that falling leadership elsewhere, the farmer will be forced to broaden their field and make the new party a Democratic or People's Party in order that it may do the work required of it.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Good Bands and Schools Are Among the Essentials

If we do not insist upon the best and improve things, and so every one makes it easy for them, who pay no attention to their own and the nation's interests, we shall have a nation still more and more degraded and more and more despised.

Brotherly Feeling Manifested At The Funerals In Venice

London.—Marshall Voeh paid a remarkable tribute to Field Marshall Haig during the course of his address after the funeral of the city of London, which he based on him. The following is said:

"I quoted more than any one else in his life his own last letter to his wife. What letter was it? He had during those last few months 'He from the north and I from the south, despite great distances and fatigue, sought each other the two big brothers in order to hug in communications and morale by both sides. The enemy's morale was low and more rapid search of his sources. We had to do so to last extent. On November 9 I sent Field Marshal Hasegawa the following message: "I am feeling certain I should be loyally followed by him and his army."

"The disorganized enemy, owing to the repeated attacks, is giving way along the entire front. It is essential to maintain and accelerate our momentum. I will upon the center and left flank, and will continue to push and their armies in order to surround and render decisive the results achieved."

Marion Bush, orchardist at Let us estimate, however, how who spent in France. Bush's family and I found we would spend 1000 and keep their family alive because to us they are a testimony and a pledge."

Apple Crop Estimated

Prospects For Big Yield Improve Throughout Country.

CHICAGO. — With the exception of Illinois, apple crop prospects have improved all around, according to the August 1 report of the fruit raiser's branch, department of agriculture.

The report said: "Since our last report was published, prospects have improved in Nova Scotia and British Columbia. We are now estimating the Nova Scotia crop at 1,500,000 barrels, including all grades pushed for export out of the province. As the local consumption is estimated at 200,000 barrels, that brings the total crop up to nearly 1,500,000 barrels, exclusive of fruit used by evaporators, canning factories and cider mills. With the extension of the British apple embargo it is likely that a large portion of the crop will be exported. The Thompson Valley crop is estimated at thirty per cent larger than last year, no comparison with the 25 per cent increase predicted in our last issue.

Can Afford Cars.

Over a third of all the motor cars in Ontario are owned by farmers or drovers, the number being 37,318 out of a total of 109,234 licenses issued in 1918. Yet it is but a few months since farmers were urged to discontinue the good roads expenditure as waste.—Toronto Globe.

Apple Crop Estimate

The report says: "Since 1931 export was published prospectively improved in Nova Scotia and Atlantic. We are now estimating Nova Scotia crop at 1.2 barrels, including all grades produced for export out of the province. Actual consumption is estimated at 1,000 barrels, that brings the crop up to nearly 1,500,000 bushels of fruit used by growers, canning factories and others. With the extension of British apple embargo it is not a large portion of the crop is exported. The (then) Nova Scotia

The Question of Shantung

The vote of the foreign relations committee of the American senate 9 to 6, to restore the Shantung peninsula to China and to amend the Peace Treaty by inserting the word "China" in place of the word "Japan", in the clause of the treaty which relates to the disposition of that peninsula, is one which will command itself to most people in our country just.

It will be remembered that Japanese and British troops took Kiau Chiao from the Germans early in the war. For some reason or other the city and territory round about it making up the Shantung peninsula, fell into the hands of Japan, which country promised to restore it to China to whom it rightly belonged.

Captain Dollar in a speech made in Calgary the other day referred to the equity of allowing several millions of Chinese thus to fall under the government of Japan, and made the prophecy that if the present Treaty were not amended so as to make the territory Chinese, there was in this very section of the Peace Treaty, the germ of what must assuredly result in another world war.

This is evidently the opinion of many American leaders.

The attitude of President Wilson seems to have been that this concession must be made to Japan in order to secure her allegiance to the League of Nations, and to secure her signature to the Treaty.

On the other hand Japan while accepting the decision of the Treaty protests that she intends to transfer Shantung to China. There are many who would prefer not to wait the pleasure of Japan in the matter.

The Fair dates, September 2 and 3.

It is too bad that the erection of an addition to the school has been delayed by the necessity of a vote on whether a debenture loan shall be asked of the Public Utility Commission. Needless to say those who oppose the petition are not persons but for the most part have no children attending the school. We doubt with their hands on their pocket books, the reason of any given vote is the high cost of building. All the signs however are that building costs are good for a large increase and the prospects of any reduction on the present prices is very remote.

The removal of Mr. G. S. Lord, who until recently has been Inspector of Schools under the Provincial Government in the Lemont Inspectorate, to Calgary to take a position under the School board there indicates a condition of affairs which should be remedied. While we do not pretend to know the reasons which induced Mr. Lord to go back to Calgary, it is certain, that many positions in the school systems of cities are much better paid than are the school inspectors. We presume the Minister of Education considers the Inspectors essential and that their services are valuable in developing education in Alberta. If inspectors are valuable and essential they should be the best men in the educational profession in the Province; and should be paid sufficient salaries to attract the best. As long as the salaries paid are lower than city school Boards pay the educational development of the Province and more especially of rural Alberta will not be all that it should be.

Why There Are High
 Prices. Many Americans are a little high on prices. They think that if they could get a good job, they could get a good price. But the fact is that the market is not a simple one. It is a complex one. It is a market that is full of many different people, each with their own needs and wants. And it is a market that is constantly changing. So, it is not surprising that prices are high. But it is also true that there are many ways to get a good price. One way is to buy in bulk. Another way is to buy from a discount store. And a third way is to buy from a company that has a good reputation for low prices. So, if you want to get a good price, you need to know where to look. And you need to know how to negotiate. Because in the end, that's what it's all about. It's about getting the best deal for your money.

Inheritance Tax Bill Passed
WOMEN, Germany.—The assembly has passed the inheritance tax bill by a majority of 333 to 10. The bill is members of the Right voted against the bill. They particularly opposed the paragraph intended to exempt the inheritance of a husband or wife from the tax on property exceeding 10,000 marks. The bill is greatly increased and in some cases modified.

Vote For The School By-law

The various phases of the question of educational need as they relate to the school, and the question of an addition to the school were considered at Wednesday's meeting.

All who were present and heard the address of Mr. G. F. McNally were given a broader view of the patriotic duty and of the duty to the individual of giving the best possible educational equipment for life.

On the other hand the practical obligations assumed by the ratepayers of the town by passing the by-law were clearly indicated.

The amount of money to be borrowed is $11,000. The school board proposed to build a solid brick addition to the school. The school ordinance provides that when a building is of solid brick the loan may be repaid in thirty years.

It was figured that the annual payment of principal and interest for the thirty years would be in the neighborhood of $500. This would mean an addition of 2-1/2 mills to the rate in the town limit.

When it was borne in mind that the school on the present school building will be paid in four years the burden of the four years will not be felt.

It is felt by all who are interested that adequate facilities for the education of our children must be maintained and that as large a favorable margin for the by-law as possible should be given. All who have a vote should put their vote on Monday, September 15th without fail.

Surrendering Canadian Independence

Under this caption the Edmonton Bulletin in a recent editorial comes to the dyspeptic conclusion that Canada is signing a signature to the Peace and a member of the League of Nations, in its desire to be a full-fledged nation, whether or not it will participate in a future war, and hands over the lives of its sons and the property to the disposition of an international tribunal.

The Winnipeg Leader some years ago remarked that "When Britain is at war Canada is at war." This is the Canada at that time had not sovereign rights, at any rate as to the declaration of war, so that if now she have sovereign rights they have been gained as a result of the war, and by the tacit admission which we are taken to be necessary to the fact that she is a signatory to the treaty of peace.

The question at once comes to one's mind does Canada if she possesses them, throw away any of her sovereign rights by becoming a member of the League of Nations? On the contrary it is not by joining herself with other nations of the world to maintain peace money taking a very precautionary step for the protection of the lives and property of her citizens? She has the same status relative to other nations as the rest of the signatories and it certainly seems fairly wise to attempt to argue, that by voluntarily signing the treaty she has made herself the pawn of the other members of the league.

One wonders also in reading the editorial what is meant by harping upon the strings of "National Independence" and the "traditional duty of a sovereign state to protect its lives and property of its own subjects" as far as this phrase may relate to Canada. Canada is not a sovereign state and never has been. The nearest approach to sovereignty has been the very recent recognition afforded her when she was given her status at the peace conference. But that recognition in no way changed her relationship to the empire or the Imperial Parliament. The British North America Act was passed by the British Parliament and if an amendment to it were required the British Parliament would make the amendment. The British Prime Minister still speaks for Canada. The committee of the Privy Council is still the Canadian court of final appeal.

There will have to be a good deal of road travel before Canada reaches the position in which the Bulletin takes for granted.

By the Way

It is pleasant to note that Canada continues to lead in the work of industrial training of disabled members of the forces. In spite of its apparent impopularity the United States has a great deal of good work to its credit in the past two years.

A resolution passed at a recent meeting of the teachers' association, asking that the town's people be asked to make an investment to supply playing apparatus for the school grounds at last week's meeting of the school board.

Mr. McNally was given a broader view of the patriotic duty and of the duty to the individual of giving the best possible educational equipment for life.

school board. The school board is sympathetic toward the proposition and its action should be taken by voluntary subscription to raise enough money to provide the needed equipment. The project appeals to the Conservator as being a particularly timely one. The play hours of the children are very important. To provide apparatus and supervision is a duty which parents and citizens generally owe to the boys and girls of their town.

We need some kind of a law in this town to have the growing boys and girls of the street in a common line every evening. There are far too many children on the streets and in the restaurants late at night for their good.

We would suggest a by-law giving the parents of any child found on the street without an adult guardian after 10 o'clock in the evening.

The rain of the latter part of last week though rather uncomfortable—it would have been more welcome at the beginning of June—retarded harvesting operations slightly but did no damage. It will probably make fall plowing more satisfactory.

Now that the private hospital conducted with approval by Nurse Berry has become defunct, action might well be taken to establish a cottage hospital here. The value of such an institution and the fact that it may be made pay have been proven by Miss Berry, so that one of the strong objections disappears.

You can also do things on your own to protect your eyes. Wear sunglasses when you're outside. Don't smoke. And eat foods that are good for your eyes, like leafy green vegetables and fish. to be retained in the bank of the great banks is a somewhat surprising development especially considering the fact that there has already been a considerable reduction in the attendance of the landowners in the country, and that many were so engaged that they were unable to appear part of the staffs in the bank.

At Bank of England over 200 clerks are employed, and are now regarded as a long-term permanent staff.

During the history of the bank there has been no direct participation in the employment of two banks. What, however, has been the case with the clerks, was that where women employed they should be paid the salaries as would be given to men.

Many of the women who work during the war have been employed in many capacities in the bank, and are adaptable in some other branches of the banking business. In fact, the women clerks have received the same treatment as men when men have returned to the army to take up their old jobs, and when men were only employed as clerks, they were employed as clerks, and the women were employed as clerks.

This practice is, however, not the same as that by the majority of the permanent clerks.

Wheat and the Loan

Everyone with anything at stake in Canada, annually watches the prospect of the wheat crop, and the price it is likely to yield. He knows that on the return of the commodity alone depends a great deal of the country's prosperity. If Canada's surplus wheat is sold at good prices the returns flow in every channel of enterprise and industry. A fortnight or so ago the eminent financier, Sir Thomas White, threw an important light on what the Victory Loan of the past two years had accomplished in connection with the single item of national property. Great Britain was and is Canada's greatest market for wheat; but by reason of the pressure exerted on her finances during the war, the market had been unable to find the ready money to purchase our surplus. The alternative was that Canada should lend her the cash, which returned to the pockets of the Canadian Producer by the sale of the wheat at high prices. The enormous importance of this item was shown by Sir Thomas White when he said that in addition to other credits 710,000,000 had been loaned to Great Britain in connection with the single commodity of wheat, last year. Of course this would have been impossible if the Victory Loan of 1918 had not been great success. The circulation as this great sum meant prosperity in vast numbers on Canada's soil, and the opinion is to be continued Canadian must find of the profits and savings with equal enthusiasm this year.

Development in the Farmers' Party

The report which appears last week to the effect that the farmers of Ontario would find a more inclusive name for their party while, not perhaps true, points the way to the direction in which development will take place. There is no doubt that a large number of the supporters of farmers' candidates in Ontario were not farmers. It will be the case in the other Provinces particularly in the west, where the leadership of the Farmers' movement, as Mr. W. G. does in Alberta, points in regarding the new movement, as a distinctly class or group party.

By the Way

The respectability of a Calgary Church has been used as the hiding place of a will. If the church give sanctuary to such a person then a will is not a legal body, as the latter apparently is based to make its presence known and to enforce its own election from the sacred precincts of the church.

The election of Edmund Lacombe in the constituency formerly represented by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, is generally regarded as a subject for much congratulation. Unlike Laurier and other Quebec Liberals, Mr. Lacombe is a Nationalist and an all round Canadian. He is a man of industry and character and is rallying around him a large number of the best of the Quebecers and of the province. Not only that he has a wide following in Quebec Province.

In another column appears particulars of an offer made by the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture of $5.00 for Live Cattle consigned to the user who not having made a pure-bred registered ram purchase one and use it. The offer is intended to make up the difference in price between a crossbred and a pure-bred ram and to prove to the farmer that he gets better results from his flock of sheep by using a well bred ram.

The result of the election in the Galtin Constituency where a Liberal and a U. P. A. Candidate ran was a narrow U. P. A. Candidate won. This was in spite of the fact that all the Calgary papers including the "Opinion" supported the Government Candidate. The Opposition and a number of members of his Club, etc., in the riding throughout the campaign. The What do you make of it? It seems to me as if political games is coming to a close.

Wheat and the Loan

Everyone with anything at stake in Canada, annually watches the prospect of the wheat crop, and the price it is likely to yield. He knows that on the return of the commodity alone depends a great deal of the country's prosperity. If Canada's surplus wheat is sold at good prices the returns flow in every channel of enterprise and industry. A fortnight or so ago the eminent financier, Sir Thomas White, threw an important light on what the Victory Loan of the past two years had accomplished in connection with the single item of national property. Great Britain was and is Canada's greatest market for wheat; but by reason of the pressure exerted on her finances during the war, the market had been unable to find the ready money to purchase our surplus. The alternative was that Canada should lend her the cash, which returned to the pockets of the Canadian Producer by the sale of the wheat at high prices. The enormous importance of this item was shown by Sir Thomas White when he said that in addition to other credits 710,000,000 had been loaned to Great Britain in connection with the single commodity of wheat, last year. Of course this would have been impossible if the Victory Loan of 1918 had not been great success. The circulation as this great sum meant prosperity in vast numbers on Canada's soil, and the opinion is to be continued Canadian must find of the profits and savings with equal enthusiasm this year.

Development in the Farmers' Party

The report which appears last week to the effect that the farmers of Ontario would find a more inclusive name for their party while, not perhaps true, points the way to the direction in which development will take place. There is no doubt that a large number of the supporters of farmers' candidates in Ontario were not farmers. It will be the case in the other Provinces particularly in the west, where the leadership of the Farmers' movement, as Mr. W. G. does in Alberta, points in regarding the new movement, as a distinctly class or group party.

By the Way

The respectability of a Calgary Church has been used as the hiding place of a will. If the church give sanctuary to such a person then a will is not a legal body, as the latter apparently is based to make its presence known and to enforce its own election from the sacred precincts of the church.

Then we hoped to win. We believed we would win.

Every man, woman and child in the Fort and district was prepared to pay any price if we only could achieve Victory.

FACE WAS FULL OF PIMPLES

For Three Years, Hard and Awkward Skin. Disfigured. Contaminated Wounds.

"I had been suffering with a pimpled face for three years. The skin had lost its suppleness and my nose was enlarged. My complexion was dark and dried out, and was usually oily. I was embarrassed by my face and was usually shy. I was afraid of going out in public and of being seen with my face like that."

"I started to use Cuticura Soap and Cream, and used a small tin of Cuticura Ointment. I was cured in three weeks. I was clean, bright, happy, and beautiful."

Use Cuticura for every-day toilet and Cuticura Ointment for chapped and cracked skin. Write for Cuticura Book and Cream, sent without charge.

In addition to travelling through many parts of country, they traversed just 150 degrees of climate. It was 40 below zero when they left Edmonton, and to Monrovia when they arrived, the mercury column hovered around 30 in the shade. —Monrovia Daily News, Dec. 20, 1921.

Last Friday evening the young people of the Presbyterian Bible Class held their annual sleigh drive. The rendezvous for the occasion was the farm of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hager, who had very kindly extended to the class the hospitality of their beautiful home. The evening was an ideal one as regards weather conditions and with 40 young people packed into two hay racks the trip out was thoroughly enjoyed. Arrived at the home, activities were being in the nature of the evening's entertainment and when the time for lunch had arrived the class had reached the "new and" home of the morning. After supper, Mr. R. Wallace, in a short speech, expressed the thanks of the company to Mr. and Mrs. Hager for their kind hospitality. This was concluded in a suitable manner by Mr. Kerr and thereafter the jolly company returned home, all coming the evening one of the best the Bible Class had enjoyed.

Coal and Iron

That the whole fate of a nation would depend upon its possession of these two commodities, coal and iron, would probably never have entered the mind of a political student or writer a century ago. Indeed their value has only become clearly understood within the last half century.

How the power of a nation has come to be so bound up in these two articles of commerce is readily realized when the history of France and Germany during the last fifty years is studied.

Germany up to the end of the war had nearly as large coal deposits as all the rest of Europe put together. She had over twenty times as much, as France. Her rich wealth in coal and iron and France's comparative poverty enabled Germany to make tremendous commercial progress and to multiply in population. France because of her poverty in these natural resources stood still commercially and in population.

It is the fact that coal and iron have such an important bearing upon the growth and power of any nation; upon the ability of any nation to hold its own among other nations, that Alsace and Lorraine have such a great value in the estimation of both France and Germany. For these two provinces are imbedded in rich deposits of iron. If Germany were able to retain them France would be condemned for all time to a life of comparative impotence, and to live in constant fear of a constantly growing neighbor.

A curious result which may have a bearing on the future peace of central Europe, of the insistence that France be given Alsace-Lorraine is that Germany will now have the great deposits of coal, while France will have the iron. Possession of both are essential to a nation's prosperity and power and it is certainly doubtful whether Germany, again becomes powerful, would not take steps to retrieve her fortunes by attempting to obtain possession of the iron-mines of Alsace-Lorraine. It is this consideration which causes the suggestion sometimes made that France should receive the Rhine Provinces and the Palatinates as well as Alsace-Lorraine.

Canadian-American Trade Relations

In America's best food port Canada and $40,000,000 of her products in the U.S. market, but she exports there $700,000,000 of goods. This is a ratio of 1 to 17.

Of course we can't export all our goods to the U.S. market, but we can export a great deal more than we are now doing.

By the Way

Nothing like a cold snap to strengthen local news. Everybody these days is busy keeping warm.

It is a significant commentary upon the unwieldiness of the American constitution—particularly as it affects the treaty making power—that the United States should be the only one of the allied belligerents still at war with Germany.

One can imagine that the irony of events by which President Wilson called together the first meeting of the League of Nations of which America is not a member must have seemed a stroke of a rather unkind fate.

Bishop Gray and Rev. Mr. Tuttle of Edmonton walked to the Fort from Horse Hills on Friday evening in order not to miss the rally in the Presbyterian Church. Those who had the pleasure of hearing them certainly appreciated their sense of duty towards their speaking engagement.

The sudden calling of Admiral Jellicoe home from his tour, indicates the serious nature of the menace the Bolshevik revolution in Russia are to the interests of Britain in the near East. An open road from the Caucasus to India would lie before the Russians unless British arms intervene.

The Council of the League of Nations met in Paris on the 16th. America was not represented; an omission from the Council Board that France, particularly, regretted. Germany, of course had no representative. If American participation in remaining out of England will be the most powerful and influential member and will certainly to a certain extent control the action of the League.

Canada is now getting her immigrants practically altogether solely from Britain and the United States. All or most of Canada's serious problems are due to the alien nationalities we now have here. A policy of only allowing English and French-speaking immigrants and not much French is to be expected, should certainly be encouraged for the future.

The statement of H. W. Wood, President of the U. F. A. and also a member of the Canadian Wheat Board, that Canadian wheat will probably bring a higher price to our farmers than has American wheat to the farmers of the United States will come as a welcome bit of news to all. There has been much migrating all along lately, because nothing has been said by the wheat board which would give an inkling as to what farmers might expect.

The growing political power of Labor and agriculturists in Canada has its counterpart in Britain in the growing political power of the same classes. In both lands they are finding support from many walks of life. George Bernard Shaw recently recalled a storm in England by a verbal assault on Winston Churchill who had expressed some doubts as to the ability of labor leaders to govern the country. The text of G. B. S. philippic was that the country had been governed long enough by the labor; let it run for a change, by the workers because they could not possibly make a worse job of it than those who have so long held the reins of power. The sentiment he expressed is finding wide acceptance. General support for the recent 1930 Valley disaster, which resulted in the death of the late Sir John Simon, one of England's ablest public men.

I tried everything I could think of, but nothing helped. Then I heard of Cuticura and bought a box. I used it as directed and in a few days the rash was gone. My baby is now healthy and happy. Cuticura is a wonderful medicine for skin troubles."—Mrs. J. H. Smith, Fort Saskatchewan, Alta.

It is a fact that the most common cause of fever in children is infection of the throat. This is usually caused by a germ called "Staphylococcus" which is found in the throat of every child.
It is a germ that is always present in the throat, but it does not cause trouble unless it gets into the blood.

When it gets into the blood, it causes a fever, and the child feels very ill. The throat is usually swollen, and the child has a sore throat. The child may also have a rash on the skin.

Don't Lose Your Cash

Don't lose your cash by not having a plan for your business. The first step is to create a business plan. This plan should outline your business goals, strategies, and financial projections. It should also include a marketing plan and a sales plan. Once you have a business plan, you can use it to attract investors and secure financing. You can also use it to track your progress and make adjustments as needed. Finally, you can use it to sell your business if you decide to exit the market.

Scarcity of Feed and Better Stock

The scarcity of feed through the last few months has drawn attention to the fact that in seasons when there has been plenty of rough cheap feed a good deal of the stock we are raising is not worth keeping. To feed hay at from fifty dollars a ton up and straw at outlandish prices to scrub cattle is not good business.

In fact all the signs of the times point to necessity of improving the grade of cattle and horses on our farms and logs of course—to make it worth while to feed them. In this connection it is very interesting to note that the last three or four years have witnessed a great awakening of interest in the question of better stock for western farmers. Agricultural organizations as well as unpleasant experiences like those many have passed through during the winter are driving home the lesson.

By the Way

Only a few days until Arbor Day which falls on May 14th. Tree plantings, though we are highly favored by nature as far as trees go, would add much to the beauty of our home properties and of the town.

The Zionist movement has had an uphill road to travel and apparently though it has the door of opportunity for entering Palestine now thrown wide open, it is meeting with opposition from the Holy Land itself. The Arabs have threatened a massacre of the Jews in Palestine unless the Zionist movement ceases.

The latest suggestion for the proper control of the liquor traffic in Alberta is that the prescription giving privileges be handed over to the Ministers of the Gospel. Salaries of the clergy are so low that possibly a legal method of this kind of increasing income might not come amiss.

Any one who walks down street with a bottle of the forbidden beverage in his hip pocket has that guilty secret which his hip pocket is a public place. Those who haven't tried don't quite realize the sensation so we've been informed. Magistrate Hugh John MacDonald of Winnipeg confirmed the lay-brother feeling by finding that a man's hip pocket is a public place if the man happens to be standing on a public street.

The Town council has appointed the first week a "clean-up" week for the town. Winter always leaves behind its unsightly piles of dirt, ashes and other debris which have to be cleaned up. The idea might be intended to include mending fences as well as painting houses long since looking worn at the knees, and generally giving the town an air of propriety and self respect.

An interesting announcement from Edmonton last week states that an American banking house is preparing to open an office in Edmonton in the near future. We can see an influx—several of them—of American banking methods into the Canadian system. Our bankers after fifty or sixty years experience have learned to say "No" and "Yes" together with "Give your money in a Canadian bank where it will be safe, your accomplishment no doubt, but even they are beginning to waken up to the fact that more is required. The American investor will hasten the awakening. The American banker is not quite so interested in trifles and red-tape as are the bureaucrats of the Canadian system, but they do enter heartily into upbuilding every phase of the business life of the Country. To this end a general knowledge of every line of business is gained and a policy of active service and progress is developed. The more American bankers and capital we get the better for the west.

His hands, the length of a full back; that, realising the futility of his efforts, he turned around with almost equal haste to her home. She hurriedly took out of a Concord holding a bottle of smelling salts to the nose of the man who had sufficiently recovered to sit upright in her chair.

"What is the meaning of this?" she demanded of Concord. "Why did you threaten to shoot me? I have never known as he did? You know, tell me!"

"I am sure it is all a mistake," said Concord, with all his strained anxiety in truth. Concord, having somewhat recovered from his fall, was in rather good spirits, having been a few better than he had been.

Agriculture in the West

One does not wonder after a trip through parts of rural Ontario that the farming industry is not as popular as some would like it to be. The land is hilly, broken in many places, many—many around the Fort and district know this well—and everywhere great forests of trees have had to be removed, in some, if not many districts, apparently nothing has been done in this way for many years. So that small fields, where a tractor would get easy turning round and where a western farmer would feel very much as though he were in gold, predominate.

The result is that "back out" farming operations are difficult and expensive at best. It would seem that truck gardening and fruit growing must to an ever greater extent occupy the energies of agricultural Ontario.

But the West! Great fields of grain. Ever increasing facilities for the agricultural producer. These assure the western farmer a much more income in his chosen calling. Not only that, but the gradual dwindling of the grain growing industry in Ontario means that the Canadian market must inevitably fall altogether into the hands of the western farmer. So that with a world market which for several years must need our grain, and a growing demand for Canadian products, the western farmer of the West is in every phase of activity, far admittedly all depend upon the success of the farmer, is assured for years to come.

Ontario Progressing

The war has stimulated growth in Canada in many ways. It has brought to her a realization of nationality. She now knows that she can accomplish anything to which she sets her hand. The great industries which may be manufacturing efforts during the war period has shown her manufacturers that peace time effort may be quite as successful and quite as paying as war time effort.

It is the manufacturing of Ontario who reaped the benefits of war time activity; it is Ontario men who have jumped into the peace time manufacturing activity. There is one thing noticeable, however, and that is that they still maintain that a protective tariff is essential. It will take a good deal of western persuasion to convince them that a protective tariff is not essential.

This manufacturing activity in Ontario, and it is strikingly apparent everywhere, is bringing prosperity to cities and towns like Toronto, Hamilton, London, Ottawa, Walkerville and many others. These centres are increasing in population by leaps and bounds.

Those who live in the country are becoming somewhat alarmed by the rapid influx of their people to the attractive centres of activity and prosperity. With conditions in Ontario tottering in this direction, that is to develop manufacturing at the expense of agriculture, the west has nothing to fear if she continues to develop that industry which is most natural to her—the agricultural industry.

Canada's Destiny

A few weeks ago reference was made in these columns to a review of Colonel W. G. Grant's "Mention in the future of Canada in the Empire. His idea was that Canada, owing to her natural wealth, must soon become the heart and centre of the Empire; that in a peace Ottawa and not London would become the capital of the Empire.

A recent article by Miss Agnes C. Laith in Maclean's magazine draws attention to the same fact. In her headline style she draws attention to the new status of "Land Power" as compared with "Sea Power" since the war was begun and today.

For many years Admiral Mahan's book on sea-power was the bible of students of war. The war, however, showed that while fleets were important, in fact all-important, the presence of the submarine seriously curtailed their efficiency, indeed that if Germany had had a greater number of submarines and had started her unrestricted campaign sooner the position of Britain would have been most doubtful.

But Miss Laith's article hinges upon another consideration. Natural resources necessary to the defence of a country will be what will make any nation of the future great. Her thesis is that of all countries of the world Canada is best provided with natural resources so necessary to self defence. For example, Canada is known to have the greatest stores of oil of any country in the world. Mexico is rapidly being drilled out. The United States the same. Other countries heretofore known to have oil, likewise.

Canada is a virgin country not yet touched. She is rich in oil, coal, iron, nickel and at the same time with wonderful agricultural possibilities. Last, though not least, the war proved her to lead the world in the quality of manhood.

Possessing all the possibilities of future greatness what can prevent Canada from becoming the key-stone in the Imperial arch of Empire?

The New Taxes

Professional opponents of the new taxation are making loud cries of agony over the fact that the luxury taxes will hit the man of means more than the man of small means. They also object that the large fortunes made by war profiteers have not been touched to such an extent as they should be.

There is no doubt that everybody will be hit by the new taxes. The only trick, however, that can justly be made is upon the score that instead of taxing now, more vigorous steps were not taken earlier to meet the country's tremendous liabilities rather by taxation than by borrowing.

It is true that those who have large wealth must be made to pay. But they do not form a very large part of our population. So that it is equally true that the average citizen will simply have to get under the burden and share the cost of payment for the war, just as he manfully helped to win the war it was on.

To the other objection that war fortunes have not been adequately hit, the only answer that can be given is that the governments of the day and particularly the Conservative government which carried on until the end of 1917 did not have courage enough and foresight enough to hit those who were making the big money.

While therefore the new taxes are unpopular and every government in Canada for the last twenty years has been inclined to avoid the Dominion's obligations will be up against the same problem, we have got to face the fact that, unpleasant as heavy direct taxation is, only by vigorous measures and by the help of everyone will our debts be paid.

By the Way

Things are looking up in Canada. East and west it is now before a land of opportunity.

STOCK PASTURE

For the last few years, the stock pasture industry has been one of the most successful in the West. The industry has been growing steadily, and it is expected to continue to do so for many years to come.

MOTORIZING THE FARM

THE horse has been declared by Thomas Edison to be the most inefficient machine in the world. In return for the amount of food and care needed, the horse returns less in work than any other machine.

The average team of farm horses costs $400, a good set of double harness $100, a wagon without box $115, making a total of $615. A Ford Truck costs $700, a Ford Tractor costs $600 at Dealers' price.

The initial cost of motorizing a farm is almost greater than the cost of a horse outfit, but the greater amount of work done makes pay the horse out of the running.

Government experiments have proved that the cost of feeding a horse is 8½ cents per working hour. A team of horses must stop more than two times in a ten-hour day. At 67 cents per hour or 17½ cents per hour for a team, the cost would be $17.75, or $17.75 more than the cost of a Ford Truck.

McCormick and Deering Harvester

Machines means satisfaction to the Farmers

Was your harvest satisfactory last season?

Did you get all of the profit from it?

UNLESS YOU USED ONE OF THE WELL KNOWN REAPING MACHINES YOU DID NOT

During harvesting and haying machines have assisted the farmer in getting all of the profit from his harvest in the past and will continue to do so in the future.

The reason for this is that the farmer who uses a reaping machine can harvest his crops more quickly and more thoroughly than the farmer who does not.

The Veterans' Memorial

In last week's Conservator the campaign to be started on the 6th of September was placed before our readers at some length.

During the week nature has been kind and a splendid head has been taken off - where cutting has not been completed, it will be very shortly.

Conditions therefore could not be more propitious for the campaign for the Community Hall. The greater the number of people who contribute to that much greater support will the Hall really be a Community Hall.

With the objective a most popular and worthy one and with prospects of well filled purses this fall the Hall project should be the most popularly supported cause yet placed before this community.

The Fair

Harvesting and preparing for and attending a Fall Fair apparently do not mix. And it is hardly to be wondered at that many people in the midst of cutting ripe fields of wheat, barley and oats could not afford time for yesterday's Fair.

At the same time the value of the fair in dollars and cents to every farmer needs very little proof. The fair is designed to attract and does attract better than average stock and poultry. The average farmer does not produce sheep, pigs, cattle and horses as it should and if a fair encourages raising well-bred stock - hogs, cattle, horses and poultry, it simply shows a farmer how to make his work more productive.

No one needs to be told that a well-bred steer will bring more than a scrub; that a good hog more than a grade. It cost less to feed them and more is got on the market for them.

The Fair is designed so that the man at the producing end will have the best heads before him of the kind of article he wants to produce so as to make most money for it.

So that the man who does not take advantage of the opportunity the Fair offers him is the loser.

Though larger and better than ever, this year's Fair still indicated a lack of interest on the part of those who should be most interested - the large body of farmers in the community.

Possibly the only cure must be a change in the date so as to make it a week or ten days earlier. It really makes very little difference to anyone but the judges whether all the local fairs in the Province were held in the same week.

Alberta College

In this issue appears the advertisement of Alberta College North, which has begun its campaign of enrolment for the fall term. Alberta College North, an institution which all North Alberta takes a great interest in. In the days before facilities for acquiring an education were not as good as at present, it was founded for the express purpose of aiding those who through lack of opportunity were denied in training. Many young men have made their way through the willing assistance given there. Through the scope of the college's development since it was founded, now nearly twenty years ago, it still holds out a helping hand to ambitious young people who through circumstances in early life did not get the fundamentals of an education.

A New "Miracle of the Marne"

The first needs no explanation.

The second is not so well known. But a recent writer who has gone over the battle-front this year attempts to describe the wonderful performance the people in the devastated regions have accomplished since November, 1918.

For example at the Somme a few weeks ago, the Minister of the Liberal Regime, M. Ogier, gave them figures: France, since the signing of the Versailles Treaty, has advanced to the devastated department, 8,499,002,915 francs for agricultural and industrial reconstruction. With the government support, the inhabitants of those departments have been back to the land.

war was carried on. For of the 3,960,000 hectares of land a hectare is about two and a half acres) rendered unfit for cultivation by the war, 3,330,000 hectares have been cleared of projectiles and 2,500,000 hectares have been cleared of barbed wire and all trenches in the same area have been filled. And with tireless energy from daylight until dusk the French peasantry through the past spring and summer have worked at the cultivation of these lands so that this fall as in the Canadian West, as in Northern France, a golden harvest is being reaped, a fitting reward for the two years of unremitting labor.

Two Leaders on the Tariff

A recent issue of the Monetary Times contains an editorial under this heading. The editorial compares Premier Meighen's program of tariff reduction with that of the Liberal party. The editorial is in fact an examination of the intentions of Mr. King the writer has in mind to place the policy of the Liberal party as framed at its Ottawa convention a year ago, and concludes that a downward revision is intended by the Liberal party.

In conclusion it is as follows and considering the fact that financial journals are often regarded in the West as voicing the sentiments of "the interests" which have waxed fat under the protective tariff, the conclusion is a most significant one.

"Between the two viewpoints the choice seems to lie with the latter. The Liberal leader is to be ambitious for his political aims in the midst of cutting ripe fields of wheat, barley and oats could not afford time for yesterday's Fair. At the same time the value of the fair in dollars and cents to every farmer needs very little proof. The fair is designed to attract and does attract better than average stock and poultry. By The Way

October 25, the date of the vote on the Prohibition issue.

The anticipated slump in price of textiles seems about due to arrive. The frantic effort of clothing and garment makers to convince the public and retailers that prices must remain high seem to be altogether unreasonable - for merchandise apparently is not scarce anywhere for.

PURITY - QUALITY - ECONOMY

With the increased cost of labor and materials due to war conditions, it is not reasonable to suppose that a really first class baking powder can be made and sold at the old prices. Rather than sacrifice the quality of

we found it necessary to make slight increases in prices during the war period. Even though Magic Baking Powder may cost a few cents more than the ordinary kind it is still by far the most economical baking powder on the market to-day when purity, strength and leavening qualities are taken into consideration.

THE GOVERNMENT AND GRAIN PRICES

With grain prices in the slump there is no wonder that many farmers are wondering why the Government does not take a hand in maintaining better prices, or that its spokesmen in Alberta Mr. W. Wood, has made the demand for a price of at least $2.50.

The reason is not that in the nature of things the farmer is entitled to this assistance at the hands of the government, but that when he could have secured a fair price the government intervened and said that he could not take it. During the years of high prices the action of the government in setting a price for grain undoubtedly meant a great loss to Canadian farmers. It is only fair that when prices of Canadian grain have become lower, the government should step in and say that the farmer shall receive a fair price for his grain.

Ons are now to pre-war prices. All most admit that the cost of production has gone up many times; similarly the cost of producing wheat is higher than ever before. So that for this reason the farmer is entitled to a fair price corresponding to the period during which they last during the war a set price should be guaranteed to the farmers.

THE AURORA BOREALIS

Almost any evening when the sky is clear, the eye is soon attracted by the shifting bands and arcs of light which chase each other across the northern and southern sky. These lights are variously described as Aurora Borealis, Aurora Borealis and Aurora Australis, or in plain English Northern Lights.

These fleeting, shifting streams and curtains of light besides catching the eye attract one's curiosity as to their cause and the reasons for the various forms they take. If they are examined over a series of evenings they are found to assume various forms. Sometimes they appear as the sun sets the lights often appear in the form of rain-bow-shaped arcs with streamers of light shooting upwards from the arc. One would almost think that the form of the earth was reflected in fire in the sky. They then appear in the form of bands, rays and sometimes like curtains. These forms are quite common. The perfect and least common, though no doubt the most striking form of aurora is the Corona. This is a sort of crown of light surrounding a comparatively or whistly dark centre. The rays are very close together and may be widely separated from one another.

Most of these shifting forms of the aurora are really seen only, however, in the higher latitudes from which they derive their name of Northern lights; the further south one travels the less frequently is the aurora seen. As a rule also they appear shortly after sunset and disappear not much later than midnight at the latest.

It is generally believed that the aurora represents some form of electrical discharge and that the aurora lines arise from atmospheric gases. Some observers say that when the aurora comes close to the earth and the air is still, that a sound like the whistling of a whip is produced. This is quite conceivable if the aurora really be a form of electrical discharge. The sun is considered to be responsible for this electric condition of the atmosphere, which would no doubt account for the fact that the aurora becomes less distinct as the midnight hours approach.

BY THE WAY

The Edmonton Journal has been devoting its columns since Wednesday evening to a criticism of the speech of the leader of the opposition. Some of them seem just; others not. For example, notwithstanding the long time given to the subject, it really does not seem to make a great deal of difference whether the leader of the Liberal party were chosen by delegates (appointed by the electors for the most part) to a convention or by the elected representatives of the party, as Mr. Meighen—in fact the democracy of the latter method appears to be more evident. When, however, the Journal's critic attempts to find fault with Mr. King's view of the second session of Parliament called to reify the Peace Treaty was a very great piece of extravagance, he seems to me to go quite as far as Mr. King's contention was not that Canada should not ratify the treaty, but as Britain had as a matter of fact ratified the treaty Canada's ratification could well wait the next session of Parliament.

One of the organizations which abundantly proved its value during the war was the Red Cross. The fact that accidents, epidemics of disease and kindred scourges do not come when war is on the march is the evidence of the Red Cross recently held at Geneva to come to the decision that the organization should be maintained as an active organ-

Railroad Men to be Employed During Winter in Winnipeg

Winnipeg.—With few exceptions, the employees of the Canadian, American and Canadian Pacific Railroads here will be well employed this winter, officials announced.

"It is not the intention to make any general reduction in the men employed in the mechanical department, but a reduction will be made in the number of men employed in the freight department."

D. C. Coleman, vice-president in charge of western lines, C&N, said a reduction will be made in the working hours per month in the spring," stated A. E. Wagoner, general manager in charge of western lines, C&N.

D. C. Coleman, vice-president in charge of western lines, C&N, said that only "smaller locomotives" were being used on the railway, which did not use a great number of employees.

Mr. Symington asked whether the rates were suspended the longer the rates on lines east of Fort William should be reduced to 15 per cent.
